

Quotes

1. Life without freedom is a lost one.
2. Enlightenment is nothing but natural expansion and alignment of one's awareness with the universal awareness through right spiritual practices.
3. Every one's achievement is only according to the opportunity provided by his/her life.
4. Do your allotted or accepted duties with total application, dedication and discipline, which is in your hands but not the results.
5. Regret not; failure often leaves you with more lessons on life than success.
6. No one can ever say, he has no regrets or repentances for some of his deeds, however good or great he is.
7. Everyone is great at the best of his time but when his time is bad, he becomes a shadow of his best.
8. Where people are free to think and do what they want within morality, justice and laws of a society, there progress and evolution can never stop.
9. A sinner is also entitled to become a saint through repentance and Meditation.

-by M. Mohan Sundar